Consider These

*“If a thief helps a poor man out of the spoils of his thieving, we must not call that charity.”
(Dante Alighieri, Italian Poet)*

“When it comes to giving until it hurts, most people have a very low threshold of pain.”

“Seek joy in what you give not in what you get.”

Reflect

Don’t trust in your riches, but trust in God

- ✓ Psalm 49:6-12 “(Sinners) trust in their wealth and boast of great riches. Yet they cannot redeem themselves from death by paying a ransom to God. Redemption does not come so easily, for no one can ever pay enough to live forever and never see the grace. Those who are wise must finally die, just like the foolish and senseless, leaving all their wealth behind. The grace is their eternal home, where they will stay forever. They may name their estates after themselves, but they leave their wealth to others. They will not last long despite their riches-they will die like the animals.”

Are you rich? Did you realize that if you personally make more than $1,500 per year you are richer than 75% of the world’s 6+ billion people!

Safety and Security

For the safety and security of everyone, your backpack or bag may be inspected. Thanks for your cooperation!

FBC Window Decals

Extraordinary Blessings / Special Needs

Bible Story:

Our goal is to partner with parents in teaching children to see and experience the world through the lenses of our beliefs.

Our desire is for them to have a biblical worldview instead of a secular worldview. Our worldview influences everything in our lives. We want our children to know that God's Word is the foundation for our lives and is the standard we use to judge every thought and action. Our Bible is perfect and true. If we use it as our foundation, it will guide us and change our lives.

Kid City Prayer Request for the Week:

Pray for our Kid City students . . .

That they would follow Your plan for their lives and use their talents, abilities and spiritual gifts.

Let's Help This Christmas ... Let's Help This Christmas ... FBC Families Need Help!

There are a number of families in our church who face "monthly painful challenges." Hardship has become a way of life for these families. But all of these families serve God with a smile among us. They work hard. They purpose to pay their bills on time. Lazy, no. No scams here. But no savings. Some families are younger. Some are older. Red, yellow, black and white and they all need some help at Christmas. Some families struggle every month to make medical payments on major medical expenses. Some families work part-time as they constantly look for full-time employment. From big families to families of one. Some face the loss of their rental home and some contemplate being homeless. Some live paycheck to paycheck on part-time wages. Some walk or ride the bus. Some families have one car. Some have no insurance.

6.

We would like to help 20 low income families in our church with some extra money at Thanksgiving or at Christmas. If you know of a family who is facing some special needs, please contact Pastor and give him your recommendation.

7.

Starting now and until Christmas, please give a check marked "Thanks Jesus." Pray and give. The last opportunity to give to this is at our three Christmas Eve Services on Friday, December 24, at 4:00, 6:00 and 8:00 pm.

Gingerbread House Event

Date and Time –

Sunday, December 5, at 12:00 pm

Goody gumdrops, lollipop and candy galore – you will love what we have in store! All families are invited to decorate gingerbread houses in the MAC. Please reserve your family spot and sign-up to donate two bags of Christmas candy on the church website: www.fbc-tempe.org, Children's Ministry.

Any questions or comments, please contact Sharmon Steil at 480-839-0926 or at fbcchildren@fbc-tempe.org.

AM Sermon – "Woe to the Sinner"

A Christmas Tradition

Candle One Equals Prophecy (First Week of Advent) Genesis 3:15, Isaiah 7:14

Prophecy is the foretelling of future events. God has used many people as His prophets to communicate His intentions and promises. God Himself gave the first prophecy of a Savior that is recorded in the Book of Genesis – the promised offspring of the woman who would crush the head of the serpent (Satan) was ultimately fulfilled in the person of Christ. This promise of a Savior was given thousands of years ago and was never forgotten by the One who gave it.

Daniel, Isaiah, Micah, Jeremiah, Hosea, Zachariah and other Old Testament prophets all spoke of the coming Messiah. In the New Testament, we see that John the Baptist was God's prophetic voice announcing the coming of "the One that takes away the sins of the world."

It is sometimes difficult to keep promises that we make. That is part of being human. But isn't it wonderful to know that we have a God who never forgets His promises and always follows through on fulfillment.

Reflect today on the commitments you have made to others that need your action this week.

Join the FBC family as an Official Member!

As a member of FBC you will live the Christian life in a community with fellow believers. You will grow and become spiritually mature in Christ.

To be a member, you need to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ and share it with one of the pastors. After you have shared your testimony, you will be introduced to the congregation on a Sunday morning. An official friend will help you become acquainted with FBC.

If you interested in becoming an "Official Member" of FBC, please fill out and indicate that on one of the orange communication cards and drop it in the offering plate.

John 21:1 – After these things Jesus manifested Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias, and He manifested Himself in this way.

- Sea of Tiberias is the _____

John 21:2 – Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples were together.

John 21:3 – Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We will also come with you.” They went out and got into the boat; and that night they caught nothing.

- Mark 14:28 – “But after I have been raised, I will go ahead of you to Galilee.”
