Consider These

*“You have not lived until you have done something for someone who can never repay you.”
(John Bunyan, English Puritan Writer and Preacher)*

*“Getters generally do not get happiness; givers get it.”
(Charles H. Burr)*

*“You can give without loving. But you cannot love without giving.”
(Amy Carmichael, Missionary to India)*

Reflect

Your giving will be a great help and encouragement to others . . .

✓ Acts 4:34-37 There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales and put it at the apostles’ feet, and it was distributed to anyone as he had need. Joseph . . . whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means Son of Encouragement), sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles’ feet.

There is no advantage in being the richest person in the cemetery.

*A wealthy Christian man who lost everything in a financial downturn was asked if he ever regretted
all the giving he had done to the Lord’s work.
He replied, “What I gave, I still have. What I kept, I lost.”*

Safety and Security

For the safety and security of everyone, your backpack or bag may be inspected. Thanks for your cooperation!

FBC Window Decals

FBC car window decals are still available for purchase. All proceeds from these go to Faith Promise to support our FBC Missionaries and Short-Term Mission Trips. If you have any questions regarding these, contact David Brinn.

Recycle Ink Cartridges

Please place any HP, Dell, Lexmark, Brother, Epson, Samsung, Kodak, Sharp or Canon empty ink cartridges that you have in the recycle box in Skylight Hall. These help defray the cost of office supplies for the church.

Our goal is to partner with parents in teaching children to see and experience the world through the lenses of our beliefs.

Our desire is for them to have a biblical worldview instead of a secular worldview. Our worldview influences everything in our lives. We want our children to know that God's Word is the foundation for our lives and is the standard we use to judge every thought and action. Our Bible is perfect and true. If we use it as our foundation, it will guide us and change our lives.

Fall 2022 Series – “The Science Behind a Joyful and Lasting Marriage”

Studying the Seven Principles for Making Your Marriage Work and how to Recognize, Expose and Work Through the Four Major Indicators of Divorce using wisdom from science and the Bible.

What Tracy says about herself – “I want to create a very warm and inviting home, but even though things look nice, they can be disorganized behind the scenes. I have a very caring and loving heart that is easy to talk with, but when I am crossed I can become angry.”

What Don says about himself – “I am extremely careful with the words I speak to others but when it comes to my wife, I do not always take that same care. I know the things my wife loves and finds joy in, but sometimes I can choose to rob her of that joy, which I am called to protect and treasure, because of my own reasons.

What they say about themselves – “We know the right things to say and the right ways to behave, but we often choose a more offensive and self-serving path which seems like not being aware of damaging results. (In many ways, a standing battle characterized between James 1:22 and Romans 7:15, 19)”

The Smile

I think of the years I’ve ignored this gift – robbed of a joy few will know.

To be with a person that glistens at my sight.

She greets not with a smile, but a glow.

What a wonderful woman God’s blessed me with.

Always greets me with a smile.

Whether it’s coming home from work or if absent but for a while.

When gone I can hardly wait to return, knowing what I have in store.

I look so forward to her greeting now, the thought sustains me, and more.

This greeting consists of very few words, which seems appropriate for such.

As no words can truly characterize the power and depths of its touch.

Now she has passed this spark on to our daughter.

I’m found powerless but to smile back!

And when greeted this way from both at once,

There’s nothing in this world that I lack!

“Tracy you have a smile and a joy like no other. May I never rob you of this.

And thank you so much for passing this gift on to our daughter;

your legacy in this world has been established through her.

The monument of joy. Love always” .... Don 2004

I'm Not a Christian but I'm Coming to Your Church

Okay, I'm not a Christian, but I have finally made the decision to come to your church this Sunday. Don't expect much from me though. If something comes up, I might not, but right now, I am planning on it. I feel like I need to go, but I am not sure why. I want to tell you a few things about myself before you meet me.

-by Thomas Weaver

1. I am not going to understand religious language or phrases so be aware of that when we talk. I don't understand slain in the spirit, God is moving in me, covered in the blood, I need to die to self, you just need to be in the Word, what you need is a new life, etc. If we have conversation filled with religious talk, I am probably not going to understand half of the words . . . and maybe think you are a little crazy.

2. When you ask me how I am doing, know that I don't trust you. I am probably going to lie and tell you I am fine. It is not that I don't want to tell you; it is just that I come from some pain and am not sure if I trust you yet. How about you tell me your story first? If I like you and get the vibe that you are not trying to capture my soul or anything, I will tell you mine.

3. I have got pretty rough language, and I can be bitter and angry about some things. If I sense in you a mindset of superiority, I am out. If you are just waiting for your turn to talk instead of truly listening to me, I am not going to be interested. Don't expect me to be exactly like you.

4. Don't make a big deal of introducing me to everyone you know. I understand a couple of people, but please; don't set up a welcoming line. I am just there to check it out; I need a bit of space.

5. I am going to be looking for genuine interest in me. I don't want to feel like your personal salvation project or be a notch on your "I saved one" belt. If this Jesus is who you say He is, then I am looking forward to seeing Him in you. That is how it works, right?

6. I am going to have questions. I need truth, not your preferences or your religion, so can you just tell me what the Bible says?

7. I need to feel welcome. Is there a time limit or something on my visit before I am supposed to feel unwelcome? I mean, I have been to other churches, and there seemed to be a push for me to make up my mind or something. How long until I am unwelcome?

Thanks for hearing me out. I am pretty sure I am going to come this Sunday. But I might not.

September 2022 God Stories

1. Sweeten up your marriage at 9:30 am on Sunday mornings with Don and Tracy Harbin starting soon. Learn how to love better. Communicate clearer. Manage conflict. Honor God. Express yourself with grace. Forgive. Compromise with mutual respect. Be watching the bulletin for more information.

2. He does several things to make our church look good. He started attending our church about one year ago and soon after every Wednesday he comes to church to collect the trash from almost every trash can on campus. Thanks Rodney for your faithful service.

3. Today we received this request from a wife who does not attend our church. "Please pray for the salvation of my husband Eric. May God soften his heart to have a deep love and personal relationship with Jesus. May he be delivered from any bitterness and darkness. Pray that he will give his life to Christ."

4. A couple weeks ago a ten-year-old boy was at the beach, swimming in the ocean and drowned. Several people tried CPR but the boy did not respond. Pray for the family. Pray for the other children who were swimming with this boy.

5. Last Sunday was his first time in our church. He said, "I am looking for a church community but I have 'lost my faith' and I want to find it again. I was raised in a church, but didn't really understand spirituality. I would definitely be in hell if I died today. I work full-time but my family lives in California. Pray for me. Seeking acceptance from local police academy for a career in law enforcement." I said, "Keep seeking God. Come to worship often. How can I help? Keep pursuing God, don't stop."

6. God is always working good in you. Agree? Disagree? God only leads you by His great good reasons for your benefit through every good and bad and ugly testing or challenge. Right? Our good God is working in you and everyone else. Right? Unjustified and ungodly anger is never from God. Right? The best vengeance, correction comes from God not you. Right?

Increased patience plus increased faith equals humble strong contentment in the ways and plans of God. Right? When we feel discouraged and frustrated we must ask if we need to trust God MORE. Right? When joy is low in us it is reasonable to say our faith in God is low. Right? When faith in God explodes, joy and patience also go up. Right? God only has great good plans for you even when you CANNOT see His plans. God is always working good in you. Agree? Disagree?

7. “Recently a portion of my backyard fence went down in a wind storm,” said a church member. “My fence spans the backyards of two neighbors and the downed portion only effected one neighbor. I submitted a claim to the insurance company as did my neighbor and I received a settlement that was lower than expected to replace the fence. So, I submitted more information to the insurance company and got a settlement that more than doubled. I could now consider replacing the rest of the fence that did not come down with my other neighbor if they would agree to share the cost. The second neighbor agreed. So, after insurance we paid $755.00 (my deductible was $500) to replace 97' of an ugly old 5' 5" high cement panel fence with a brand new 6' high block fence.”

8. I thank God and I deeply appreciate Christians like Wayne Shedenhelm, Joy Getz, Pam Rosendale, Spike Nicholson, Paul and Sharon Turck, John and Carol Becker and many others who often reach out to people who are struggling in one way or another, are isolated and restricted at home or are in a care center or hospital due to a wide range of health issues. These people send cards, pray, offer support, visit and make phone calls to encourage the weak, discouraged and challenged.

9. Early in August she shared she just turned 71 years old and recently retired. As a child she grew up in a mountain village in Korea, in Buddhism. She said, “I remember walking as a child on Christmas Eve and heard people in a church singing. I entered the church and they gave me a candy cane. For the first time I heard the story of the birth of Jesus and I began to believe in Jesus Christ as my Savior and I began to follow Jesus. With a glowing smile, Jesus has always taken good care of me since I was a child.”

10. One hundred orphans in Uganda recently received $9,000.00 from FBCT to build classroom #7 at their school. They already have six classrooms finished but they needed to construct their seventh and final classroom to be able to have a primary school which has seven grades. Any funds left over after construction of this classroom will go for buying desks, bookshelves and textbooks for the students that would be using the classroom. Praise God for much mercy at FBCT.

11. One person writes, "I am asking you to pray for Stephanie. Stephanie used to work in strip clubs. She no longer works in these clubs, but she still entertains men, does drugs and takes part in unhealthy relationships." Please pray for Stephanie, please intercede for Stephanie. Pray that God will place people in her life to bring the healing love of God's heart. God bless you.

12. My son needs prayer. "My son is homeless. He does have a job but his apartment complex raised the rent to a point he cannot afford. He lives in Flagstaff and with the students returning to classes now, most of the housing has been taken." Let's pray for this son.

13. Don't ask for help. "I was listening online to the sermon since I wasn't able to make it to church. I finally realized the true meaning of humility. Humbling myself when I needed help was something I have never done. I grew up learning to deal with my own problems and not to ask for help. I really hurt myself in the long-run by not doing so. It amazes me how, at my age, that I'm still learning valuable biblical truths." Praise God. Practice daily humility.

14. Invaluable. Priceless. She loves and serves Jesus faithfully with excellent research skills. Her problem-solving analytical skills are outstanding. No one needs to give her reminders because she is most proactive. Most important she loves people. We praise God for Bev Martin who serves in many ways throughout the church.

Last night at 6:00 pm Sunday night church Harold said, "My brother, 78 years old, and every morning of his life went to the gym and ran marathons almost every year. Extremely healthy. But a couple days ago he died of pancreatic cancer." I said, "I am so sorry." Harold said, "No one knows how many days we have left to live. You can NOT predict life. We do not have full control.” I said, “Every day should be a smile. We should love, encourage and inspire others and don’t wait to be loved and inspired.

16. Three positive college students came to church for the first-time last Sunday. Two Asian Christians and one spiritual seeking Hindu non-Christian. I said, “Hi” and introduced myself. They followed with their introductions and a few welcoming comments. The non-believer said he was a data scientist. I said, “Are you an IRS agent?” He laughed and said, “Yes.” I asked him, “Are people mean toward you because you work for the IRS.” He said, “Yes.” I said, “Jesus had friends who were tax collectors. Jesus will not be mean to you. I will do my best not to be mean. Thank you for coming to church and learning about Jesus today.”

17. Less than three months ago on their first visit to our church a couple attended the 8:00 am Worship Service. I said, “Hello” and welcomed them. They came back a few times to the 8:00 am and then I saw them in the 9:30 am Worship Service and a couple Sundays ago she sang in the choir. Yesterday she sang in the choir again and her husband played in the orchestra with that big violin called the base violin. Thank you to both of you for serving Jesus with the gifts God has given you.

18. A lady said to me, “What should I do with my pre-teen daughter about her gender. My family has bullied me most of my life. I do not want to bully my daughter. I don’t want to tell her what gender she should be.” I said to this mom, “Be your daughter’s mother and guide her the way Jesus would guide her, gently and firmly guide her. When your daughter was born was she born a female or male?” She said, “Female.” I said, “Did God make a mistake by making your daughter a female.” The mother said, “God does not make mistakes.” I said, “As her mother guide your daughter toward Jesus and the Bible. As her mother remind your daughter every day God made her beautiful as a female not a male and not transgender.” The Mother said, Thank you very much. I will guide my daughter to honor her female gender as God made her.”

Ezekiel 20:45 – Now the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

Ezekiel 20:46 – “Son of man, set your face toward Teman, and speak out against the south and prophesy against the forest land of the Negev, Ezekiel 20:47 – and say to the forest of the Negev, ‘Hear the word of the Lord: this says the Lord God, “Behold, I am about to kindle a fire in you, and it will consume every green tree in you, as well as every dry tree; the blazing flame will not be quenched and the whole surface from south to north will be burned by it.

Ezekiel 20:48 – “All flesh will see that I, the Lord, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.”

Ezekiel 20:49 – Then I said, “Ah Lord God! They are saying of me, ‘Is he not just speaking parables?’”

Ezekiel 21:1 – And the word of the Lord came to me saying,

Ezekiel 21:2 – “Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the sanctuaries and prophesy against the land of Israel; Ezekiel 21:3 – and say to the land of Israel, ‘Thus says the Lord, “Behold, I am against you; and I will draw My sword out of its sheath and cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.

Ezekiel 21:4 – “Because I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword will go forth from its sheath against all flesh from south to north.

Ezekiel 21:5 – “Thus all flesh will know that I, the Lord, have drawn My sword out of its sheath. It will not return to its sheath again.”

Ezekiel 21:6 – “As for you, son of man, groan with breaking heart and bitter grief, groan in their sight.

Ezekiel 21:7 – “And when they say to you, ‘Why do you groan?’ you shall say, ‘Because of the news that is coming; and every heart will melt, all hands will be feeble, every spirit will faint and all knees will be weak as water. Behold, it comes and it will happen,’ declares the Lord God.”
