Consider These

"Our real worth is what will be ours in eternity."

*"Charitable giving should be a spiritual, rather than an economic decision.
Economically, charitable giving never pays."
(Ron Blue, Christian Financial Planner)*

*"Looking for the reward of good works, we must wait patiently till the last day, the day of resurrection."
(John Calvin, French Theologian and Reformer)*

Reflect

A main focus for your giving should be your local church and ministry staff . . .

- ✓ I Corinthians 9:10 Christian workers should be paid by those they help. Those who do the plowing and threshing should expect some share of the harvest.
- ✓ Galatians 6:6 Those who are taught the Word of God should help their teachers by paying them.
- ✓ Deuteronomy 12:19 Be careful not to neglect the Levites (ministers) as long as you live in your land.

Safety and Security

For the safety and security of everyone, your backpack or bag may be inspected. Thanks for your cooperation!

Extraordinary Blessings / Special Needs

Bible Story:

Our goal is to partner with parents in teaching children to see and experience the world through the lenses of our beliefs.

Our desire is for them to have a biblical worldview instead of a secular worldview. Our worldview influences everything in our lives. We want our children to know that God's Word is the foundation for our lives and is the standard we use to judge every thought and action. Our Bible is perfect and true. If we use it as our foundation, it will guide us and change our lives.

Praising God in January 2023

1. A text was received from a woman in Mindelle Will's Sunday Bible Class on Understanding the Bible. She expressed how she had the confidence and ability to share with her children and family what she believed. She no longer felt intimidated but empowered to be able to study the Bible on her own. She now has the knowledge and skills to feed herself the Word.

2. A woman attended the Women's Holiday Brunch and was partnered with a woman she did not know. Both had attended the church for years but had never met. They are now prayer partners and share similar life challenges. They have introduced each other to new friends and have formed a small community of prayer warriors.

3. A woman brought a friend the Women's Fall Retreat who had lots of questions about God. Her friend found the answers she was seeking and is now attending church and Bible studies.

4. There are many stories of women here at FBC making connections with each other and making a deeper commitment to study God's Word which results in major life changes for themselves, developing a family legacy, and a positive witness to friends at work.

5. A man named Michael stopped by the Church Office. He lives in New Mexico but was traveling to Lake Havasu. On December 24, 2020, he lost his wife, brother, and nephew in a boating accident. He had moved to New Mexico where his family had property. A couple of months ago, he had considered suicide; however, he reached out to his pastor and was able to get professional counseling. He is in the process of traveling back to Lake Havasu via bus to visit family and to hopefully resolve some of his grieving issues during the visit. Because of the generosity of the people of FBC, we were able to provide the means to a couple of meals as he continues his travels. Please continue to pray for Michael.

6. 2022 was riddled with many challenges. However, with those challenges came an equal number of opportunities to show Christ's love to others.

7. This year two colleagues individually suffered significant financial and emotional hardships. The first colleague found herself and family in significant debt due to her husband losing his job and only to replace it with a new position that was literally half the salary. This person broke in tears admitting how they continued to live as if they had the same income. This debt as well as credit card debt has put a great deal of stress on her family. What a great opportunity God provided to show His love in being there just to listen. The family has taken full ownership of the situation and is doing all they can to honestly dig their way out. I watched her bring lunches of no more than peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and discuss how hard it is to say “No” to others. Before Christmas God blessed me with a Target gift card that I was able to return the blessing and gift to the family. They were excited and thankful indicating that they were only able to purchase one small gift for each member of the family.

8. In a very similar fashion, another colleague's husband lost his job a couple months ago. This colleague just came off maternity leave giving birth to their second son. This has been devastating not just to their financial security but more in that she has watched her husband's confidence and career be forever altered. Her husband was an orphan in Poland who was adopted in his youth by a family in America. He worked harder than others to learn the language and joined the military to serve. He is a decorated US veteran who saw death and lost fellow soldiers in the battles he fought for America, then when he finished his service, he entered law enforcement only to see his career in law enforcement end as well. God allowed me to be there, listen and talk about how He (God) is there and will provide. Multiple times she was in tears in my office, also noting that it must be Gods will and there will be a blessing in the end, but it is dark for them now. I encouraged her to stay fixed on their faith and the importance of keeping their marriage strong. God led to provide a daily devotional for men for her husband, not knowing how he was taking that gift or if he would use it. Two weeks ago, she gave me a letter from her husband and told me she has no idea what it says. The husband wrote a thank you note on how much the devotional has meant to him. My colleague said, “Her husband has never done that before.” God blessed my wife and I through (FBC) with a gift card to a nice restaurant that I was able to pass on to her re-affirming the importance of marriage and encouraging her to do a date night. She was near tears in agreement and thankful saying they have been so busy surviving that it did not dawn on them that they just go out together and will absolutely use it.

9. Over the last two years I have watched numerous paralegals and secretaries in my office leave due to unprecedented times working at a law enforcement agency. It is not easy to be constantly told in the news that your work in law enforcement is not appreciated and you for working for them are deemed evil, in fact society cried out to defund. This has led to unhealthy personnel shortages putting more weight on the faithful shoulders of those remaining. God again blessed me with an unexpected $100 bill (from a trivia contest). What a blessing it was for me to be able to pass that on to them. It was the first time I have been able to provide something for all of them that work with me.

10. St. Francis who lived in 1182 was well known for this poem. "Lord make me an instrument of your peace when there is hatred, let me so love, for it is in giving that we receive it is in parting that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

11. What a great tie into Proverbs 11:24 - "One person gives freely, yet gains more; another withholds what is right, only to become poor." King Solomon sadly only realized this at the end of his life how indicating how much time he wasted.

12. Ecclesiastes 1:12 – (CSB) I, the Teacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. (13) I applied my mind to examine and explore through wisdom all that is done under heaven. God has given people this miserable task to keep them occupied. (14) I have seen all the things that are done under the sun and have found everything to be futile, a pursuit of the wind.

13. Ecclesiastes 2:25 - (CSB) because who can eat and who can enjoy life apart from him? (26) For to the person who is pleasing in his sight, he gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy;

14. Pastor Anthony and his wife, Karissa, were at a local restaurant a couple weeks ago on a Friday night when the staff had tragedy strike. One young cook had a seizure and died in the restaurant. They offered to stay with the staff, to pray for them and just offer presence. The staff welcomed them (multiple by personal confession who were "not religious") and they were able to offer emergency support. April, the Regional Store Director welcomed their presence and said, "How is it that a pastor and a professional counselor would be eating dinner in our restaurant when all this took place? This didn't happen by accident."

15. One young couple in our church is about to have a baby in January. Praise God for the blessing of children. Stop and remember that every child from conception is a gift from God. Every mother is a mother from the moment of conception. Every father is a father from the moment of conception.

16. One young couple, seeking pre-marital counseling from Pastor Anthony, is learning about God's true meaning for marriage and intimacy. They have beautiful love for each other and vulnerability that leads to authentic communication and honesty. They continue to learn how a man humbly motivate a woman in a healthy way and how a woman can humbly motivate a man in a healthy way. They are preparing well for a lifelong marriage together. Pray God will bless their faithfulness to Him.

17. One family in our church is seeking pastoral guidance for help on how to respond to their daughter who told them she is in a relationship with a woman and planning to get married. Praise God they love their daughter. Praise God they are turning to the Scriptures for answers. Praise God they are turning to the church and fellow believers for help instead of isolating and feeling alone. Praise God they are understanding the Biblical instruction is for marriage between one man and one woman. God is with them and they are leaning heavily on God this season. God often uses pain and heartbreak to sanctify His children. Praise God He can bring good in spite of our sinfulness.

18. One woman in our church recently got to witness her 9-year old daughter accept Jesus as her Savior. Now her daughter is seeking baptism. God adds to His kingdom daily.

19. One homeless man came to FBC the day after Christmas because lots of stores were closed and many churches were also closed. We were able to provide him warm coffee, a plug to charge his phone, some food for breakfast, a couple gift cards for a couple more meals, and a homeless bag with basic essentials. He came with nothing but the clothes on his back and multiple people from FBC touched his life in a meaningful way because we were prepared for him that morning.

20. Many of our Christmas Shoe box gifts from our most recent Compassion Outreach event went to the country of Madagascar. Please keep praying for each child who received one of our boxes. Praise God He can build His kingdom through the shared Gospel and the gifts we give to each other.

21. Many in our church have chosen to send their kids to private Christian schools in the area to avoid some damaging immorality being displayed and taught in public schools today. These families are choosing to protect their children this way. Praise God for Arizona Christian School Tuition Organization (ACSTO) and the state of Arizona laws that allow people to make contributions to scholarship students for private school that become personal direct state tax credits towards state tax liability. This gives many church members a huge opportunity to designate their own tax dollars towards Christian education for other member's children. Many take advantage of this benefit and our children are blessed as a result.

Ezekiel 33:21 – Now in the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth of the tenth month, the refugees from Jerusalem came to me, saying, “The city has been taken.”

Ezekiel 33:22 – Now the hand of the Lord had been upon me in the evening, before the refugees came. And He opened my mouth at the time they came to me in the morning; so my mouth was opened and I was no longer speechless.

Ezekiel 33:23 – Then the word of the Lord came to me saying,

Ezekiel 33:24 – “Son of man, they who live in these waste places in the land of Israel are saying, ‘Abraham was only one, yet he possessed the land; so to us who are many the land has been given as a possession.’

Ezekiel 33:25 – “Therefore say to them, ‘Thus the Lord God, “You eat meat with the blood in it, lift up your eyes to your idols as you shed blood. Should you then possess the land?”
