Happy Thanksgiving

Consider These

Consistent giving facilitates consistent ministry.

Abundant grace brings abundant blessing and spurs abundant ministry.

The work of God is to be done by the people of God giving according to the will of God.

Reflect

Happiness comes when we stop wailing about the troubles we have, and offer thanks for all the troubles we don’t have.

Patience strengthens the spirit, sweetens the temper, stifles anger, subdues pride, and bridles the tongue.

Romans 8:6-8 “If they plant to satisfy their sinful selves, the sinful selves will bring them ruin. But if they plant to please the Spirit, they will receive eternal life from the Spirit. We must not become tired of doing good. We will receive our harvest of eternal life at the right time if we do not give up.”

Safety and Security

For the safety and security of everyone, your backpack or bag may be inspected. Thanks for your cooperation!

FBC Window Decals

FBC car window decals are still available for purchase. All proceeds from these go to Faith Promise to support our FBC Missionaries and Short-Term Mission Trips. If you have any questions regarding these, contact David Brinn.

Extraordinary Blessings / Special Needs

Bible Story:

The first Sunday of each month during the 9:30 and 11:00 am services, our 1st – 6th graders will worship with their families. These worship services are purposefully designed to introduce our 1st – 6th graders to worship with their families. An age appropriate Sermon Guide will be provided to help your son or daughter navigate and follow along with Pastor Anthony's sermon.

Our goal is to partner with parents in teaching children to see and experience the world through the lenses of our beliefs.

Our desire is for them to have a biblical worldview instead of a secular worldview. Our worldview influences everything in our lives. We want our children to know that God's Word is the foundation for our lives and is the standard we use to judge every thought and action. Our Bible is perfect and true. If we use it as our foundation, it will guide us and change our lives.

Let's Help Families in Need this Upcoming Holiday Season

There are families in our church who face many "monthly painful challenges." Hardship has become a way of life for these families. But all of these families serve God with a smile among us. They work hard.

They purpose to pay their bills on time. Lazy, no. No scams here. But no savings. Some families are younger. Some are older. Red, yellow, black and white and they all need some help during the holidays. Some families struggle every month to make medical payments on major medical expenses. Some families work part-time as they constantly look for full-time employment. From big families to families of one. Some face the loss of their rental home and some contemplate being homeless. Some live paycheck to paycheck on part-time wages. Some walk or ride the bus. Some families have one car. Some have no insurance.

We would like to help 20 low income families in our church with some extra money at Thanksgiving or at Christmas. If you know of a family who is facing some special needs, please contact Pastor and give him your recommendation.

Starting now and until Christmas, please give a check marked "Helping at Thanksgiving". Pray and give. The last opportunity to give to this is at our three Christmas Eve Services on Saturday, December 24, at 4:00, 6:00 pm.

November 2023 God Stories

Hebrews 6:10, "God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ministered and in still ministering to the saints."

Below is a small sample of those serving God at FBCT.

1. Sunday, October 8 we welcomed 16 new members to FBC (Tom & Sheriess Croke, Jacqueline Kottwitz, Scott Sheehan, Jennifer Harris, LeeAnne Williams, Abby & Charles Waterland, Emma Frisbie, Jerry Kyeremateng, Al Beahm, Clifford and Adina Garcia, Mark Hemingway, Deanna & Jon Murray, and James & Susan Roberts)! One of the new members said she has never joined a church before, but when she came to FBC Tempe she was surprised how many people greeted her. She felt so welcome that she wanted to come back. Praise God for the many members welcoming new people to FBC and praise God for 16 new members committing to mutually invest and be invested in at FBC.
2. Smell the coffee and donuts! Our SkyLight Cafe is run completely by volunteers. They do it all: pick up supplies, make the coffee, sell yummy things, cleanup and decorate. Paulina Harner, a volunteer, leads over twenty-five volunteers in this ministry. Please make sure you stop by and thank them for their service. You, too, can serve in the cafe. Talk to Paulina.
3. FBC-Tempe is blessed by Gary Maack! Gary, who in the past worked closely with Pam Rosendale on the FBC-Tempe financial records, stepped in at a moments notice to fill an unexpected need. Gary has spent many volunteer hours keeping our financial records updated and running smoothly. Thank you, Gary! Please give Gary a big thank you when you see him!

You, too, can invest your time and gifts at FBCT.

Call 480-839-0926 and volunteer.

4. Stepping into leadership is an exciting and challenging way to serve God. Paul Turck is the new Messenger Sunday Class President. This class is a very welcoming group of couples and singles. They have a heart of gold and it shows as they meet the physical and spiritual needs of not only their class members but also others. You might think this group was serious but they are not. They have a fun social calendar. Paul is aptly fitted for this position. He is a planner but most importantly, he is a lover of people. Please pray for Paul as he serves as President. Thanks!
5. Volunteers come and volunteers go! But it is sweet when someone rejoins your volunteer team. Richie Brown is home in Kid City. Richie is a trained teacher and his desire is that kids learn about Jesus and become a child of God. God has gifted Richie to relate to both kids and their parents. Richie is a valuable team member in Kid City! See Kid City Director Sharmon Steil if you would like to join Richie and the Kid City Team.
6. Their “behind the scenes” service elevates your worship. Our volunteer tech ministry headed by Adam Bachman provides audio and visual support for our weekly rehearsals and worship services. These gifted and dedicated volunteers make all the difference. They are our “unsung” heroes! They help create a distraction-free environment so that we can place all of our focus on what God has to say to each of us every weekend.
7. The search for a new senior pastor begins! Scott Blum is the lead of the team searching for FBCT’s new senior pastor. Others on the senior pastor search team are: Michael McCall, Ted Gutierrez, and Rafael Salgado. The Search Committee developed a job description for the new senior pastor and posted the opening on-line. This committee reviews all applications and resumes. They interview potential candidates. Please pray for them as they read resumes and evaluate candidates.

“For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.” Mark 10:45

8. Committee to help welcome a new senior pastor. David Brinn is the lead of the Transition Team. Other members are Aaron Will, Josiah Bender, Don Halver, and Jeff Warrick. They are busy preparing FBCT for a new senior pastor. When a new senior pastor is chosen they will help the new senior pastor integrate at FBCT and help him get to know the church family. Please pray for them as they plan for FBCT's new senior pastor.
9. Making relationships with others is key to the Christian community. Our volunteer run Sunday lunch program encourages many to develop relationships. Chef Ryan Barbarisi and his sidekicks James & Nina Sidabras and Chad Curry work with others to provide delicious lunches in our gym. Tom Verburg organizes volunteers to setup and tear down each week. We have over ten servers serving up the delicious meals. Be sure to thank those serving in this ministry. Or, better yet join this team of servants. Contact Pastor Anthony to volunteer.
10. Orange bags? Orange bags encourage others! If you enter FBC near the church office on any given Sunday at 7:45 a.m., you will see Richard Compton collecting and giving out orange bags. Richard has teamed up with the Phoenix Rescue Mission to provide relief for people in need. These orange bags are filled with the basics of life: nonperishable food, toilet paper, full size hygiene items, water, socks, etc. Richard has a servant's heart. Activate your servant's heart and fill an orange bag.
11. They are often considered the heartbeat of our Worship Ministry ... our Music Library Team (Laura Bachman, Barbara Keeney, Kathy Taylor and Paulina Harner) works tirelessly behind the scenes, copying, organizing, filing, and distributing music for our weekend worship teams, orchestra, bands, and choirs. This is an amazingly complex and time-consuming ministry, but they have simplified and distributed the tasks in such a way that they make it look easy. They are a fantastic team that serves each week, keeping our ministry running. We are truly thankful for every team member.

12. Making Christmas memories for children: FBC has two ministries creating Christmas memories for children. 1) Bruce Baird and a host of other volunteers work with Prison Fellowship in providing gifts for children whose parent(s) are incarcerated. Everyone at FBC is encouraged to get a tag from the Angel Tree and buy gifts. And, then volunteer to wrap, organize and deliver these gifts to the children. 2) Volunteers donate stuffed animals, candy, ornaments, etc. and then assemble Christmas bags for children who attend our Christmas Eve services. The theme for this year's bags is "When Love Came Down." Contact Pastor Roger to volunteer for either of these ministries.

13. Serving With a Heart for God! Someone recently wrote on Facebook, "I give thanks for our Kris Williamson! From the very first day that she was brought on as women's ministry director, she worked tirelessly for hours a day, every day, to ensure that we all had a retreat this year. She prayed over it, planned, requested, planned some more and prayed some more. She did this with no idea of what God had in store for us, but knowing, not just trusting, that He would do it. We are so blessed to have a woman with such love for Christ, knowledge of His word, and the ability to apply it so that we can grow in character, knowledge and relationships. Thank you Kris, for loving us."

14. GOD Uses Pastor Al and CIRA. Mujaahid writes, "I am from South Africa and was born a Muslim. Through the grace of God my wife and I have recently (and by that I mean only a few days ago) accepted Christianity after being touched by the Holy Spirit. I have done so after my wife showed me some of your videos on YouTube. We are still in the process watching your videos and they are really inspiring us. We have not gone to any churches yet and we are praying for our Lord Jesus to guide us on our journey. I am sure that you will be far too busy to reach out to us but I just wanted to thank you for words and videos, it has changed our lives! God bless."

You, too, can invest your time and gifts at FBCT.

Call 480-839-0926 and volunteer.

“Do Your Part”

Colossians 4:4-18

November 19, 2023

Al Fadi

Are you a person who loves and serves? One who exhibits appreciation and faith and desires to do what it takes to put it in action? Our real service comes from realizing who we are in Christ and allowing our devotion to translate into application. Let us exercise our faith and take advantage of our opportunities to grow and promote Christ's Message. Faithfulness to Christ can be expressed by helping one another and by serving in a cooperative action for that is what matters to God.
